

Images of Hidden North Norfolk

What do a blacksmiths death- mask, an iron cello, a mass grave, a gunrunning clipper, a lobster in a dovecote and a lost village have in common? They are some of the weird, wonderful or wacky things you can find in High Norfolk. Here is a collection of photos taken during the writing of my most successful e-book, Hidden North Norfolk. There was no room for more than a few in the original so here are the ones I couldnt include. They are not great art but all have a tale behind them in the original book or on one of the 65 hyperlinks I have inserted.
