Excerpt: ... must be borne in mind that before this period the Trustees and Executors under the will of the deceased had ingathered and transported to Scotland all the English funds there outstanding and unpaid at the time of the Testators death. No doubt the Court of Chancery afterwards, on 4th May, 1883, ordered said funds to be returned to England. By that time the infant Plaintiffs vigilance, and that of his next friend, had been aroused to actively protect their rights and interests, as will appear in the sequel. Of 2(t/i November, 1882. ist.
