

Order of Battle: German Panzers in World War II

The German armored divisions in the Second World War were the iron fist of the Blitzkrieg. Broken down by key battles within each theatre of war, this book shows the strengths and organizational structures of the Third Reich's armored forces campaign by campaign. With extensive organizational diagrams and full-color campaign maps showing the disposition of units, this is an easy guide to the German panzer forces, their strengths during key campaigns and battles, and details of where they served throughout the war.
