

The Lives of the Saints (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Lives of the Saints
The name on this holy day, Lammas, is a corruption of Loafmass - a feast of thanksgiving for the first fruits of the harvest, annually observed in England at the beginning of August. Bread made of the new wheat was offered at mass on this day, and was solemnly blessed; and hence, in many parts of England, tenants were bound to bring in new wheat of the year to their lords, on or before the 1st August. The blessing of new fruits was performed annually in the Eastern and Western Churches on the 1st, and sometimes on the 6th of August. It is mentioned on the latter day in the Sacramentary of S. Gregory. About the Publisher
