Excerpt from Memorial of William Julius Mann, D.D., LL. D: Pastor Emeritus of Zions German Lutheran Congregation, Philadelphia, and German Professor of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania in the Theological Seminary, Mt; Airy, Philadelphia. Ancestors; Early Life; School Days And University Time. An old legend to which Dr. Mann himself sometimes referred in a half humorous manner, traced his ancestors back to an officer in the army of the Swedish king Gustavus Adolphus, who, after the death of the brave Northern hero, tired of the vicissitudes of the thirty years war, had settled in the little village of Hirschlanden, Wurttemberg. But the church records do not bear out this interesting tradition. They help us to trace the genealogy back to Johannes Mann, who, in 1624, held the position of treasurer of the Church fund (Heiligen-Pfleger) in Hirschlanden, and bought the record-book for the congregation for the sum of four florins. To hold such a position of trust he must have been a man of 40 to 50 years, and we are safe in saying that he was born about the time of the Book of Concord, of German and not of Swedish parentage.
