Excerpt from Sermons Preached at the Church of St. Paul, the Apostle, New York: During the Years 1865 and 1866 The reparation of our loss of Paradise through the Incarnation of the Son of God has already wrought such wonderful and magnificent changes upon the face of the earth; such a countless multitude of souls have found the desired salvation; so many nations who sat in the darkness and the shadow of death have seen the Great Light, that now, in our own day, it would be difficult to conceive of the great joy which the annunciation of the angel would bring to a world that had not yet seen Christ, its Saviour, and its God, the long-promised Messiah, the Deliverer of the Nations, the Prince of Peace.
